PREFACE

A few words about the research are needed.

First, it is important that I try to support the data with documents or media that support the data of each individual. This helps to validate and provide confirmation of the genealogy history recorded about a person and their families. In some cases I have seen many forms of data, but I only attached those that provide proof to help support my recordings. If I attached all I could find would provide too much for my computer files and overload the presentation.

In United States history are numerous varieties of record types that have been preserved. Each of these records provide the trail of the people and their documented history. There are many sources that provide information of this documented history. In this book are footnotes of the source documents or places this research has been recorded. There are so many types of sources to mention here, but this book provides some of that information as recorded in my Family Tree Maker (FTM) file.

Some of the data has been found or learned but have no supporting documentation. Why? Because to maintain limited electronic files; and that some of the information has been discovered on many sources. In some cases, it is real information known by people of these families.

Ireland is divided by two territories. Northern Ireland, and The Republic of Ireland (the Irish Free State). Northern Ireland is under the control of British rule. The Republic of Ireland is its own sovereignty nation. The name "Éire" is the nickname or name used for Ireland.

First, one has to understand the land divisions of countries. This helps understanding to find people and where they lived.

One important note about individual and family names. Each surname coupled with given names you will find many of the same name or combination of names. Therefore, other items such as parents, birth, death, marriage, territory, and possible other items are required to ensure one has identified the current person and family.

Enjoy reading, but there is so much to learn. This document will provide a base for anyone wishing to do genealogy research or just adding to this family information.

RESEARCH NOTES

Doing genealogy research is a long term and time-consuming task. If one is doing it for real, they will collect a great amount of data about life of people, the territory they lived, and learn about the uniting of families. For this researcher, there is much learned that is way above what is taught about history in school classes. Research can include working with on-line resources in today's Internet and can include travel to obtain information and documentation from Federal, State, County, City, or towns from records they kept. Cemetery records are a great source found on-line via the Internet.

There are many avenues why folks do genealogy research. For this researcher, I am not writing a book, I am trying to learn of past family and a small bit about them. I am not recording every detail that is possible. If I did, I would not be able to share what I have discovered in this book and I would still be on the road to discovery.

What is in this book is free to all to read, print, or share as they desire. This information is public and can be found by others; therefore, I am not doing this for any monies or profit, just for the pleasure of doing this research and a great retirement hobby for me.

This research has been ongoing between 2000 to 2021 to compile and record in this book. There are many resources, these are just some of them.

The following is a sampling about what I used to do research.

1. Ancestry.com [<https://www.ancestry.com/>] web site. (Pay to use)
2. "Family Search" [<https://www.familysearch.org/en/>] (Free to the public] web site that is open to anyone. This site is created and supported by The Church of Latter-Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah (aka Mormon Church or LDS).
3. Using an Internet browser to search by varies names or phrases does help locate some information.
4. Primary source documents such as: US Census, Birth, Death certificates, cemetery records, civil documents, and immigration records or other documents that support the validation of family names and their link to relatives.
5. Find-a-Grave: [<https://www.findagrave.com/>]. In the attached files you may see the term "Memorial ID" with a number sequence. By going to the Find a Grave web site and entering this Memorial ID, that will take you to the grave information that has been recorded by folks who go to cemeteries and document the graves. In some cases, you will see the grave maker and other information folks have recorded for that person. In some cases, there are links to parents, siblings, and children along with spouses that all have a Memorial ID recorded.
6. Historical Societies and Internet Genealogy resources

NOTES:

1) ANCESTOR: Also known as a forefather, fore-elder or a forebear.

2) DESCENDANT: Are descending after a forefather, fore-elder or a forebear.

- Meaning of "direct descendant" as opposed to "indirect descendant"

1. A direct descendant is someone who can trace their lineage by "child" relationships all the way back to the desired ancestor.

2. A non-direct descendant has to go through a "cousin" or "by marriage" or some other non-child relationship in order to find the desired ancestor.

Definition of genealogy.

1. An account of the descent of a person, family, or group from an ancestor or from older forms.
2. Regular descent of a person, family, or group of organisms from a progenitor or older form: pedigree. The study of family ancestral lines.

My research is recorded in Family Tree Maker version 2019. <https://www.mackiev.com/ftm/>

An add-on program titled Family Book Creator is used to create this book.

<https://www.familybookcreator.com/en/>

Research is aided with use of Adobe Photoshop Elements & Adobe Acrobat PDF maker. Adobe web site: <https://www.adobe.com/>

Adobe Reader for all computers: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>

- This allows you to read any Adobe PDF (built for a computer operating system) file like the ones with this report.
- Just be sure to Uncheck the items before downloading if you don't want them.

In some cases I used Microsoft Word from MS 365 software suite.

I use Kaspersky Internet Security virus software. It is the best one that I found to do the job.

<https://usa.kaspersky.com/>

Today, I have over thousands of names in files and many documents (or "Media") in my files including photographs. Backup is on DVD/CD and Thumb Drives and on Cloud storage.

Just be sure if you decide to do genealogy research to support your recordings with valid and correct documentation. Read that documentation to be sure it applies to your person or family researching. I have found errors in other postings and even in some published books. Please beware of what you record to be factual and valid!

Compiled by John Hanrahan

A comparatively modest present, but the good of which I can give.

Many thanks to my wife's cousin Terry and her friend Casey who helped me begin the journeys into genealogy in the year 2000.

The beginning of this effort got started from a few notes from my Uncle Gordon Kent and my wife's mother Mary Ruth Bridgham Fuhs.

Reading, taking a few genealogy classes, and great help from many people and the Internet all have contributed to this effort.

I have learned much that allow me to seek the ancestral and descendant trails for the families presented in this book.

What is Genealogy?

A record or account of the ancestry or descent of a person, family, group, etc. the study of family ancestries and histories. Descent from an original form or progenitor; lineage; ancestry of people.

It is important to support the family presentation with verified documentation. Those links of that documentation should be recorded to provide proof of:

- 1) Accurate Results.
- 2) Correct Postings.
- 3) Reliable Sources.
- 4) Factual Information to a Nuclear Family.

A nuclear family is a one set of parents and their children.

"Only who knows his past has a future."

Foreword

This book contains the facts, who, what, where, when, but not the story of A FAMILY. But it is the story of MANY FAMILIES along with some information of basic facts and notes.

It is about the descendants or ancestors of the surnamed person related to all people listed in this book. Note: over time the surname may change as this was due to a language interpretation of the words from another language to English. In some cases, it is how a person hearing a name pronounced and thought what they heard and consequently spelled the name differently.

Another fact, naming of children was set forth by family protocol in family history. Therefore, caution is required as one will see the same names in many families resulting with the same names used very often and can only be identified by parents, birth, death dates and/or other factors.

It is amazing how often there is a close resemblance for relatives separated by generations.

There are many paper trails of recorded facts and information. The discovery of those paper trails helps find the information about families that provide the ancestral connections to people. This book is about those finding but begins with a known person and provides their descendants or ancestors and all related folks that have been recorded in my files.

DISCLAIMER

The program creating this book is a great tool. It uses data from the Family Tree Maker (FTM) data base; However, the words or sentences that this program provides can, sometimes, or may not have the proper syntax of the English language. That is not an error, but it is a terrific programming task to make all the syntax blend with the data from FTM as best as possible. It is also dependent on my input that would help make the syntax of sentences look wrong when it may not be the case. It could be my error in data entry.

Introduction

The following pages list data for all known family members as of June 02, 2022.

Each immediate family is presented in their own section that contains a graphical family tree as well as a description with information about each referenced person and their children.

Any files/Media collected is attached to a person or family is pictured with each family.

The child section provides information about the children of the preceding couple. When a child has offspring of their own this is presented in a separate family section for that child. In this case a '+' is used to denote that an individual will appear later in the book as a parent with his/her own children and there is a link to the appropriate family reference number. Each spouse and their children is a "Nuclear Family".

For children with partners but no offspring the partner data is given with the reference family.

Roman numerals, followed by a period, are used to indicate the birth order.

In the chapter titled "Family of the Starting Person" the ancestors of William Hanrahan are presented in a form of an enhanced Pedigree Chart which displays the graphic representation of their direct-line ancestors and the children of the couple. This chapter contains information about the couple whose ancestors are listed in the later chapters.

The chapter titled "<HeadlineFamilies>" provides details (as known as of this publication date) for the ancestors of William Hanrahan.

There is a chapter for each generation.

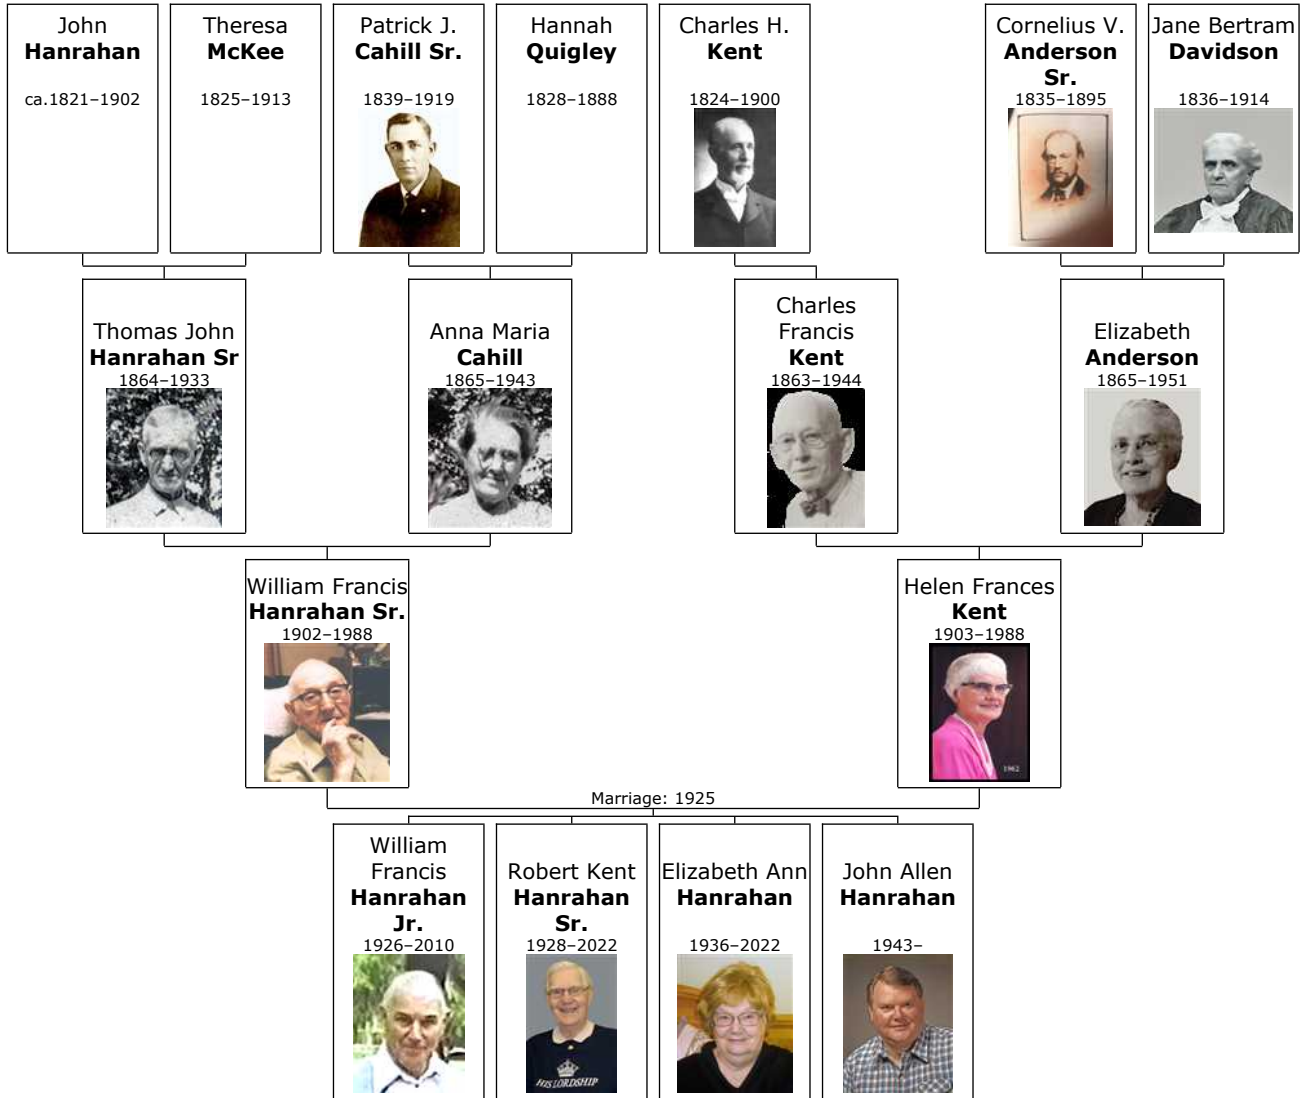

Relatives are listed in the order of the nearness of their relationship.

Sources for the information provided are given in the footnotes.

This document reports the details of 85 individuals, of whom 41 are male and 44 are female. Of the 67 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 69.9 years. Of these, 30 males averaged 72.5 years, and 37 females averaged 67.7 years. The longest living male was Robert Kent Hanrahan Sr. (1928–2022), who died aged 94. The longest living female was Mary F Quigley (1843–1939), who died aged 95.

Person Notes: Note from an old family friend Margery Benning, her father painted with Bill Hanrahan back in 1920s:
I do recall your living at 723 on 10 th Street and also at 823 9th Street (we one time called this the Luther Arey house) in the 1930's our home was next door east of the Arey house at 819 9th Street

Bill was a Painter and decorator (meaning doing paper hanging on walls), he learned this trade in the 1920's and work at this trade all his life.

They moved to Davenport, Iowa in 1945. It was a large 2 story home with a large lot that included a big barn and garage. He always planted a large garden every year. He raised animals and dogs. He trained the dogs and also took some of the dogs to many dog shows where he showed them to judges and would win sometimes.

Highway 9 (road is now known as Saratoga Sunnyvale Road) in Cupertino but boundaries later changed and it became Saratoga, California. It was located, then, in the middle of the orchard country. After they sold the store, He worked as a painter most of the time, but on occasion hung wall paper for clients.

William's dad was a drayage worker (heavy wagon and horse). He helped his dad build a barn to house the wagon and horse. He also, told me of working with the town Doctor. They would ride in the doctor's buggy with a horse attached. If the doctor needed something from town, my Dad would ride the horse back to town to retrieve the doctor's items and meet him at the next stop.

His painting crew painted the Catholic church steeple. A very large landmark in DeWitt.

"Sister Susie's Sewing Shirts for Soldiers" is a World War I era song that tells about a young girl sewing shirts for soldiers fighting abroad. Her efforts are in vain however, as "Some soldiers send epistles, say they'd sooner sleep in thistles, than the saucy soft short shirts for soldiers sister Susie sews."

Herman Darewski composed the music, while the lyrics were written by R.P. Weston. Both Billy Murray and Al Jolson sang early versions of the song, which was published by T. B. Harms & Francis and Day & Hunter in 1914. Each verse was meant to be sung faster than the last which presented issues for soldiers who had consumed large quantities of beer.

She is a crafter and had many peices of equipment to aid in this hobby.

She has a collection of Shirlery Temple dolls.

1945-1953: Davenport, Iowa 1643 West 15th Street. John was an adventurer and had many friends about the neighborhood. He played with all those kids and was most time late in getting home. His dad would come looking for John and If John didn't sneak around his dad and get home, he would always get a whipping from his daddy. John was just having fun and never wanted to give up on his many activities. From the east end of the block to the west, the street had a natural fall and this is where he learned to ride his sister bicycle. One day, after many tries, John was able to control and steer the bike on two wheels, from then on, he was a bicycle rider. Many times sneaking the bicycle off where Mom and Dad did not know.

In the winter, snow would cover the ground and the houses on the street were at different levels to the street. This provided 3 levels of hills to enjoy the snow. Using snow sleds and some with skis or other type snow riding device, the neighborhood was always having fun in the snow. Many a snowball fights were had in good fun. Building snowmen, snow forts and many other snow activities were the target of those winter days. Even going to a nearby park to snow sled on steep hills that were two and three blocks long for a big ride.

In the summer time, John's dad would plant a huge vegetable garden and mom was a canner. Dad raised dogs so trips to dog shows and many new puppies were always on the agenda. Dad also raised chickens, pigeons, and sometimes other animals. Family and friends would come to the house to enjoy get together and enjoy the large yard area acceptable for such occasions.

One of John's best friends in Davenport, Iowa was Steven Drish who lived across the street. After 45 years in 1998, via Email, John was contacted by Steven and they had a brief meeting in Sunnyvale and continued to correspond via Email. Steven was now a consultant and living in the Berkely Hills area near Oakland, California.

When a local fire station came to Division street (a hill in Davenport, Iowa - 1/2 block from family home) to drain, clean and roll up hoses, John would be there to help them. If he went by the fire station, they would buy him an ice cream cone.

1953-1959: Cupertino, Saratoga, Ca 12370 South Hi way 9

John's parents owned a small grocery store, that was later converted to a lighting store by other owners. John worked in the orchards in surrounding areas & the dehydration building earning enough money to buy school clothes. earned about $80 a summer.

The family sold the grocery store and the family moved to a San Jose location and John finished his hi-school at Camden Hi School. Some years after graduation, the school was closed and a shopping center was built in its place. The only remains were bus garages and sports fields used for community activities. At Camden, John was a member of the Hi-School band and participated in many band activities.

1959-1964, After Hi-School, John lived with his parents at the San Jose address. He worked in service stations until securing his job at Lockheed Missiles & Space Co. in Sunnyvale, Ca., this started a 37 year career begin on 1/29/1962 until 11/1999. 1947 Borchers Drive, San Jose, Ca in the Cambrian Park Area West of San Jose.

1964-1999: After Marriage, John & Charlotte lived in various areas of San Jose and Campbell before retirement. During these years they raised two daughters and John became an active volunteer with the Campbell Little League. He served in many positions on the Board of Directors, Coaching, Umpiring and lead many projects that helped improve the facilities. Of one of those was when the league built the major league division dugouts. Charlotte's friends from Garden Valley (Fred Ostenreider) at age of 80 and John's Dad, age of 66 were the primary support that helped build the dugouts. Of course there were help from others, but Fred did the block work and John's dad made the mortar. During the 1976 year of Presidency, a Campbell All-Star team won all the games necessary to participate in the Little League World Series. John and his family had the good fortune to follow the team all the way to Williamsport, Pa.; They toured Washington DC and flew home with the team to a big celebration. Among their other interest including supporting their kids activities, they enjoyed family events, traveling and making a home for the family to enjoy many happy events.

December 2000: John & Charlotte moved to Elk Grove, Ca to establish a retirement home. This was about 10 miles south of Sacramento, Ca. Here, they began the long journey to record and collect additional information for this genealogy file.

John spent 13 years volunteering at Franklin High School, Elk Grove, Ca. He helped with the theatre department. There he built sets, ran errands, developed a web site and various other computer items in support of the theatre activities.

Obituary April 20, 1933 in DeWitt Observer states Son Thomas was one of 13 children of John Hanrahan & Theresa Mckee

An obituary states Thomas lived in DeWitt for 32 years, he died in 1933, this means they moved back to DeWitt about 1901 but a 1910 census reports daughter Margaret was born in Nebraska in 11/1904. May be possible he returned to DeWitt first to establish a home and returned to Nebraska to bring his family back to DeWitt, or the birth location noted in reports of daughter Margaret is not correct.

At the age of 26, Thomas John married Anna Maria Cahill on Wednesday, January 28, 1891, in Villanova, Clinton, Iowa, US, when she was 25 years old. They had six children: Patrick, Theresa, Thomas, Agnes, William and Daisy.

Anna Maria Cahill

Anna Maria was born in Villanova on Tuesday, December 12, 1865.^[42, 45, 46] She was the daughter of Patrick J. Cahill Sr. (2.2-1) and Hannah Quigley (4.2-1).

Her religious affiliation was Catholic. Anna Maria reached 77 years of age and died in DeWitt, Clinton, Ia, on July 07, 1943. Her cause of death was Acute Myocarditis -- Arteriosclerosis. Anna Maria was buried in DeWitt, Clinton, Ia., US (St. Josephs Cemetery).

Person Notes According to a 1880 & 1900 census report the name of Maria is listed as Thomas' wife. Other reports received had the name as Mariah. Grandchildren of William F. Hanrahan (Maria's son) had known her name to be Mariah Possible the name may be Maria Ann. It is believed her name is Maria but she used the name Mariah. However, in census as a child, she is listed a Maria. In newspaper abstracts found on the Internet for her marriage, she is listed as Anna Maria; thus the reason for the listing in this record.

Also on that 1900 census report, she had 4 children but only 3 were living at the time of the census. This indicates a child born and had died. Census reports they were married for 9 years indicating the oldest child died as an infant.

Obituary notice listed mentioned all the children that included the name of the oldest child that died as an infant. She had 6 children, of which 2 died in their early youth.

She was a great cook always having some baking goods on hand. She told grandson William Hanrahan Jr. about providing food to the Indians in Nebraska. They would smell food and hang around the home but would leave as soon as she gave them some food. Mainly the bread

Person Notes: Note from an old family friend Margery Benning, her father painted with Bill Hanrahan back in 1920s:

I do recall your living at 723 on 10 th Street and also at 823 9th Street (we one time called this the Luther Arey house) in the 1930's our home was next door east of the Arey house at 819 9th Street

Bill was a Painter and decorator (meaning doing paper hanging on walls), he learned this trade in the 1920's and work at this trade all his life.

They moved to Davenport, Iowa in 1945. It was a large 2 story home with a large lot that included a big barn and garage. He always planted a large garden every year. He raised animals and dogs. He trained the dogs and also took some of the dogs to many dog shows were he showed them to judges and would win sometimes.

After moving to California was the only time he didn't do the job of painting and decorating. They owned a small grocery store and he was the butcher in the store. The store was located at 12370 So Highway 9 (road is now known as Saratoga Sunnyvale Road) in Cupertino but boundries later changes and it became Saratoga, California. It was located, then, in the middle of the orchard country. After they sold the store, He worked as a painter most of the time, but on occassion hung wall paper for clients.

William's dad was a drayage worker (heavy wagon and horse). He helped his dad build a barn to house the wagon and horse. He also, told me of working with the town Doctor. They would ride in the doctors buggy with a horse attached. If the doctor needed something from town, my Dad would ride the horse back to town to retireve the doctors items and

Obituary April 20, 1933 in DeWitt Observer states Son Thomas was one of 13 children of John Hanrahan & Theresa Mckee
 To this date, I have only found that may be 8 children.

Theresa is found in 1900 census in Nebraska but no John listed, Theresa is listed as widowed; but John & Theresa are found buried in the Catholic Church in Wisner, Nebraska; John's death listed as 1902 and Theresa's death listed as 1913.

There were two Brogan sisters living in DeWitt in the 1930s that were said to be relatives. However, Cousin Gwendolyn states in a letter that Thomas' parents were John Hanrahan & Mary Brogan. Not True, they are John Hanrahan & Therese Mckee. Also, a Mary Brogan lived on a neighboring farm in 1880 and evidence indicates her husband died in 1890. By this time, John & Theresa were moving west.

Theresa is found in the 1910 census listed living with her daughter Anna in Fort Smith Arkansas. Census states she had 8 children and 5 are living. Her name is spelled Tereisa (suspect spelling error of census person). I have found evidence of two more children as listed, if there is more, they are unknown at this time. However, the obituary of son Thomas states Thomas is one of 13 children. That means there could be 5 more. My opinion, that could be possible as a record of marriage is found about 1851 in Illinois.

On the death certificate of daughter Anna, Anna's mother's name is listed a Mary Teresa. This could be true but no other evidence is found at this time.

Ulster is the northerly province of the island of Ireland. Encompassing the counties of Donegal, Cavan, Monaghan, Fermanagh, Tyrone, Derry, Antrim, Down and Armagh, Ulster was originally known by the Celtic name of Ulaid (Ulster in English). The earliest written sources about the history of Ulster date back to the 7th century.

County Armagh, historically, was the ecclesiastical centre of Ireland for some 1,500 years. Derived from the Irish 'Ard Mhacha' referring to the legendary Queen Mhacha, who is said to have built Fort Navan (Emain Macha). Evidence of sacred sites and burial grounds are abundant in the region. Once the ancient seat of Kings, Navan, to the west of Armagh town, was the earliest capital of Ulster. It is a site of unparalleled importance, which reflects over 7,500 years of evolution. The Irish King, Brian Boru, is buried in Armagh cathedral.

Most census records indicate birth location as "The Republic of Ireland (Irish Free State)". Irish Free State is the Sovereign county of Ireland not under British rule. Northern Ireland is under British rule.

(<https://familysearch.org/ark:/61903/1:1:VTSH-DNG>
: 30 June 2016), Anna Johnston in household of George Johnston, Clinton, Iowa, United States; citing
p. 380, 1895, State Historical Society, Des Moines;
FHL microfilm 1,020,192.

Anna Johnston is named in the 1933 Obituary of brother Thomas Hanrahan and in the 1945 Obituary of brother Michael Hanrahan. Both Obituaries state
"...of Fort Smith, (Sebastian County), Arkansas...".

While the name Johnson is used in the Obituaries,
after searching the Census, the name Anna Johnston is found. This is believed the correct individual because in 1910, her mother, "Teresia" Hanrahan is found listed in the Census living with the family. All other information matches possible family information. Additionally, the Hanrahan family is found in a listing of the 1885 Iowa Census with an Anna Hanrahan, age 24, living with the family found in the town of Westside, Crawford Co., Iowa.
Therefore, the listing presented here is believed to be the correct family of the Anna "Johnson" noted in the obituaries of her brothers as stated above.

Baptism certificate found shows August 14, 1859 with parents names of John & Theresa Hanrahan.
(Brother James has a not he was born March 1862?)
Based on most Census, it appears her birth year is 1864; however, some census years are not consistent with identifying the exact year. In 1900 census it has July 1864 but is hard to read. however, death certificate state July 1862 as noted in this record.

1940 Census Line 30 of Page 61A. She is Living with the Vernon family listed as Grandmother.

Per Death Certificate, she lived in Arkansas for 40 years, which means her and family moved from Iowa to Arkansas about 1908. Her son L. L. Johnston is listed as the informant on the death certificate.

The death certificate list "Shebanse" (Chebanse), Illinois as birth place. However, this town is not found at this time but the town of Chebanse, Iroquois County, Illinois is found and closely resembles the name on the death certificate. Chebanse is on the boarder of Iroquois and Kankakee counties (the Kankakee county is where her brother Thomas is listed as born).

In the 1880 census an Anna Hanrahan is found on Page 47, line 18. Listed with a family as a servant aged 20. Living in Chebanese, Iroquois, Illinois. Head of household: W. J. Hunter (37) a watchmaker born in Ohio, parents in Pennsylvannia.

Thomas

Person Notes:A 1900 census report has the family listed living in Wisner, Nebraska. Thomas is listed as a Farmer renting his home. This census report confirms information listed on the family group sheet for children and birth dates of month and year along with birth locations by State of Country.

Obituary of Son Thomas states they moved to Iowa locating on a farm near Villa Nova, Clinton, Ia. And family is found in 1880 census in this location. In 1885 Iowa state census, the family is found living in Westside, Crawford, Iowa. Crawford County, Iowa is located north west of Des Moines about 35 miles east of the Nebraska boarder. Monona County is between Crawford and the Nebraska boarder. Westside is a small town located on the eastern edge of Crawford County.

Obituary April 20, 1933 in DeWitt Observer states Son Thomas was one of 13 children of John Hanrahan & Theresa Mckee

An obituary states Thomas lived in DeWitt for 32 years, he died in 1933, this means they moved back to DeWitt about 1901 but a 1910 census reports daughter Margaret was born in Nebraska in 11/1904. May be possible he returned to DeWitt first to establish a home and returned to Nebraska to bring his family back to DeWitt, or the birth location noted in reports of daughter Margaret is not correct.

Family of Anna Cahill and Thomas Hanrahan

2.1-3 Anna Maria Cahill was born on Tuesday, December 12, 1865, in Villanova, Clinton, Iowa, US. She was the daughter of Patrick J. Cahill Sr. (2.2-1) and Hannah Quigley (4.2-1).

Anna Maria Cahill

Person Notes: According to a 1880 & 1900 census report the name of Maria is listed as Thomas' wife. Other reports received had the name as Mariah. Grandchildren of William F. Hanrahan (Maria's son) had known her name to be Mariah

Possible the name may be Maria Ann. It is believed her name is Maria but she used the name Mariah. However, in census as a child, she is listed a Maria. In newspaper abstracts found on the Internet for her marriage, she is listed as Anna Maria; thus the reason for the listing in this record.

Also on that 1900 census report, she had 4 children but only 3 were living at the time of the census. This indicates a child born and had died. Census reports they were married for 9 years indicating the oldest child died as an infant.

Obituary notice listed mentioned all the children that included the name of the oldest child that died as an infant. She had 6 children, of which 2 died in their early youth.

She was a great cook always having some baking goods on hand. She told grandson William Hanrahan Jr. about providing food to the Indians in Nebraska. They would smell food and hang around the home but would leave as soon as she gave them some food. Mainly the bread

At the age of 25, Anna Maria married Thomas John Hanrahan Sr on Wednesday, January 28, 1891, in Villanova, Clinton, Iowa, US, when he was 26 years old. They had six children: Patrick, Theresa, Thomas, Agnes, William and Daisy.

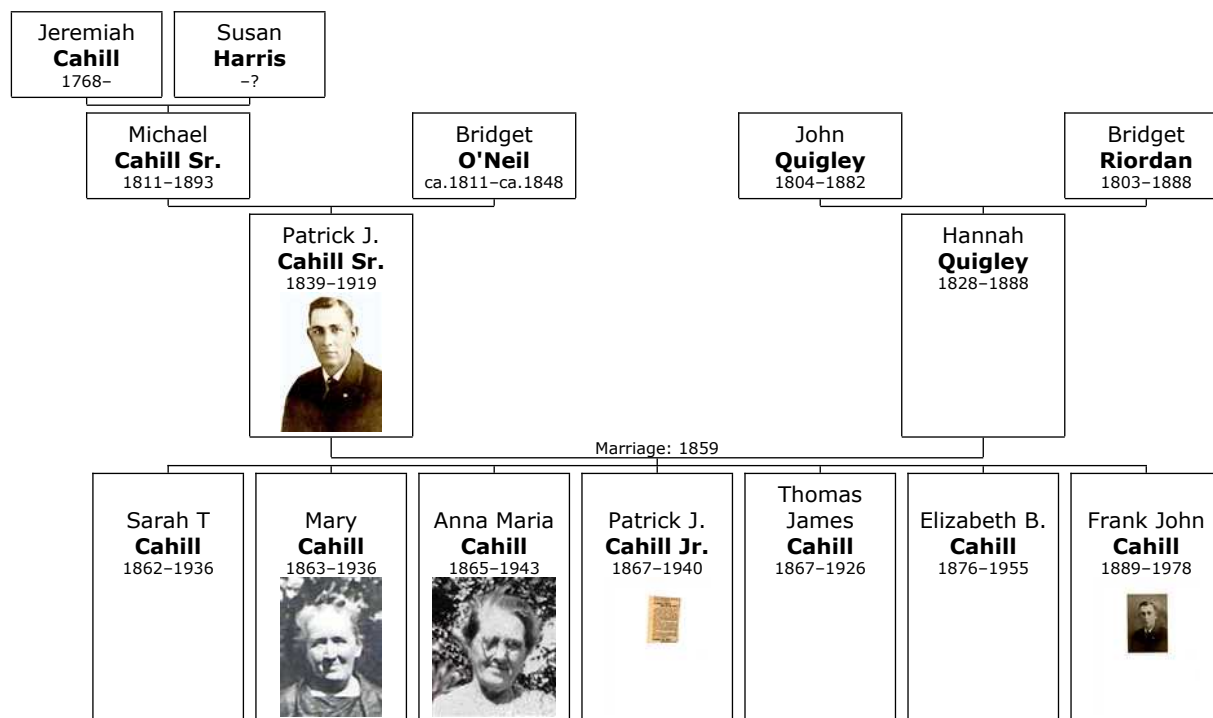

Thomas John Hanrahan Sr

Thomas John was born in Kankakee, Kankakee, IL, on Monday, July 04, 1864.^[115-117] Thomas John reached 68 years of age and died at Cancer of the Stomach in DeWitt, Clinton, Iowa, USA, on April 19, 1933.^[115, 116]

Following is an excerpt from "History of Clinton Co.", F.E. Wolfe)

About 1868 Patrick purchased 40 acres in Eden Township near Malone. This 40 acre is a portion of his present farm consisting of 120 acres of choice well-improved land. He received his education in the common schools and always followed farming and succeeded in building up a valuable and very desirable farming property and general farming and stock raising. Research Notes:<http://www.geni.com/surnames/cahill>

Generic History of our Name The Cahill name is one of the oldest in Europe. The Irish had surnames very early, and O'Cahill was one of the first. The earliest recorded person of our name was a monk, Flan O'Cahill, who died in 938 A.D. It is extremely unlikely that anyone can trace a member of his or her family back to Flan's family. The O'Cahills have links back to Irish pagan leaders in the 200s and 400s A.D. By 1000 A.D. the O'Cahills controlled much of south Galway, east Clare, and western and northern Tipperary. This predominance was ended in the 1200s by the O'Shaugnessys and the O'Donoghues, perhaps both in alliance with the Norman-English who had recently arrived in Ireland. Those 13th century defeats may have led to the loss in most lines of their "O," which indicates both descent and predominance. However it happened, by 1659 the name "O'Cahill" had been almost entirely replaced by "Cahill" as a common surname in a listing of workers on the large farms following the English Cromwellian land confiscations. Today Cahill is the most common surname in Munster, the old southwestern province, which includes the counties of Clare, Limerick, Kerry, Cork, Waterford, and Tipperary. The Irish there pronounce it with the accent on the first syllable with a short "a" and in the last syllable an almost-swallowed "h". This can be described as pronounced "CA" (accented) as in cattle, and "hill" as hull

Anna

Person Notes:According to a 1880 & 1900 census report the name of Maria is listed as Thomas' wife. Other reports received had the name as Mariah. Grandchildren of William F. Hanrahan (Maria's son) had known her name to be Mariah

Possible the name may be Maria Ann. It is believed her name is Maria but she used the name Mariah. However, in census as a child, she is listed a Maria. In newspaper abstracts found on the Internet for her marriage, she is listed as Anna Maria; thus the reason for the listing in this record.

Also on that 1900 census report, she had 4 children but only 3 were living at the time of the census. This indicates a child born and had died. Census reports they were married for 9 years indicating the oldest child died as an infant.

Obituary notice listed mentioned all the children that South Dakota in 1906. Built home approximately 1910-1914. Owned and farmed 7 quarters land south and east of Kimball, South Dakota. Farmed with horse teams. Always had good horses. Had one seated buggy and a surrey for family. Had fancy top and mud guards on wheels -- used to go to church or town for special occasions. Took 2 horses. First car purchased about 1915. Moved to Kimball 1924. Death do to intestinal obstruction due to kink in colon -- contributory cause -- perforated ulcer of duodenum. Buried in St. Margaret's Catholic Cemetery, Kimball, South Dakota.

Thomas and Elizabeth farmed in Orange Township, Clinton County and later owned and operated a butcher shop in Grand Mound, Iowa. In 1905 the family consisting of Thomas, Elizabeth and children Mary, Theresa, Ellen Rosalie, William Francis and Thomas Aloysius moved to South Dakota. They purchased a farm and after two years sold it to other settlers from Iowa and bought a farm in Wilbur Township, known as the Cahill farm, and there raised their family.

When Thomas purchased the farm it had on-half section or 320 acres of land. Eventually he bought another half-section, then a quarter section and later added another half section for a total 1120 acres. They built a fine home on their farm which is standing vacant and in disrepair in 1997.

The move to South Dakota was prompted by our pioneer ancestors looking for land. All the Iowa land was taken -- no more home stading so they continue the westward movement.

Thomas would speak to his sons of how important it was to own land. He grew to love the South Dakota prairie lands but Elizabeth never convinced herself there was anything in South Dakota that equaled the green of eastern Iowa. Much of the farm was in grass as there was hogs, cattle and horses on the Cahill farm. Good horses were a must on the Cahill farm and they had many horses. Thomas had four boys and most of the time a hired man to help with the unending work. His theory was to break the sod and plant wheat and corn. At the time it worked very well. The framing was done with 3 or 4 horse team.

The lived on their farm until 1924 when they moved to Kimball and their sons, T.A., Bill, And Dode continued to live on the farm. The farm was foreclosed upon in 1934 during the Depression.

Patrick Cahill is listed in the 1870 Census on page 2, line 16 with with Hannah and 4 children living Washington Township, Clinton, Iowa, USA .

HANNAH QUIGLEY BACKGROUND:

Not much is known about Hannah, but her father was a well respected farmer and businessman in Clinton, County. The following is found on the Internet and is quoted per: PORTRAIT AND BIOGRAPHICAL ALBUM OF CLINTON COUNTY, IOWA - Chicago: Chapman Brothers 1886

"John Quigley, was born in county Tipperary, Ireland, in 1802 where he married Bridget Riordan. About 1832, he left Ireland with his wife and four children and came to America, locating in New York City, where he was employed in the grocery trade for a few years. He then removed to Buffalo, N.Y., thence to Ottawa, where he engaged in the grocery trade and also conducted a hotel till fall. In 1849 he went to Cattaraugus County, N. Y. The New York & Erie Railroad was in process of construction at the time and he undertook contracts to build various portions of the same.

He completed his labors in New York in the fall of 1853, and in December started West, coming as far as Chicago, where he left his family until he could secure a location. Coming to Clinton County he selected a claim and took up land which now lies in Washington Township. He then walked to Iowa City and entered the land, 240 acres, at the Government office. His family came West soon afterward, coming by railroad to Freeport, which was at the time the Western terminus. He built a house on his land and lived there one year, then bought a claim on section 30, Waterford Township. There was a log house on the place and twenty acres broken. The family moved into the log house and the father commenced to improve his land. At this he continued up to the time of his death, March 11, 1882. He had in the meantime brought the land to a good state of cultivation and erected some frame house upon it indicated he married Catherine Brophy in 1852 and other records indicate there was 9 children in this family. They lived in Clinton County, Iowa where both died a found in a grave site noted in this record. However, based on the death certificate Michael's wife is listed as Catherine Kelly.

Michael Quigley, the youngest son, inherited the farm of his father that comprises 170 acres. Also located on the farm is the village of Quigley on the northwestern Railroad, founded by the family, and the post-office which bears the same name."

No records found to date with Catherine Kelly listed with Michael Cahill. This researcher suspects that the Brophy and Kelly may be the same person. after much research, this researcher believes the wife is Catherine Kelly as listed in this record.

The following notes are received on 6/16/2000 from Berniece Cahill Behrens of Reno, Nv. She is the daughter of Joesph Ligouri "Dode" Cahill, son of Thomas James Cahill, son of Patrick Cahill Sr., son of Micheal Cahill Sr.

The Cahill family history in this country begins in 1849 when Michael Cahill, born in Ireland in 1811, and his children, Patrick, Margaret, and Bridget, joined the exodus from Ireland during the Irish "potato famine". Bridget O'Neil, the first wife of Michael, died in Ireland prior to their move to the United States.

The second wife of Michael Sr. was Catherine (maiden name unknown). Catherine was born in 1823 in Ireland. Two children of this marriage. Michael and Catherine were married in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Sometime between 1860 & 1863, they moved to Clinton County, Iowa. It appears Micheal and son Patrick Sr. moved to Iowa at the same time. Micheal lived in Washington Township.

In an article titled "History of Clinton County, Iowa", Patrick declares he emigrated to American in 1849 with his father, brothers, and sisters, his mother having died in her native country.

Information Berniece has was from her Father "Dode" and various public records going back to 1988.

According to 1870 census on page 2, line 13 listing: Michael Cahill (59), Bridget Cahill (25) born in Ireland, Michael Cahill (17) born in Pennsylvania

Although Patrick Cahill, farmer of Eden township, Clinton county, has spent practically all of his successful and useful life in America, he is of pure Irish blood and lived in his native island long enough to imbibe the ready wit, the characteristic energy, and courage that makes him a well-liked and progressive citizen. His birth occurred on February 2, 1840, and he emigrated to America in 1849 with his father, brothers, and sisters, his mother having died in her native country. His father first located in Pennsylvania and here he married Hanna Quigley, a native of Ireland. The family came to Iowa, locating in Clinton county, near De Witt. In 1868 Patrick Cahill purchased a farm of forty acres in Eden township, near Malone, the same being a portion of his present farm, which consists of one hundred and twenty acres of choice land which is well improved. His wife died on March 18, 1888, and was buried at St. Mary's Cemetery, in Washington township, where the father of the subject had previously been buried.

Patrick Cahill has three sisters and one brother living, his sisters being Mrs. Laughey, Mrs. Haskins, and Mrs. Brogen, whose husbands are deceased; these sisters all live in Clinton county. The brother, Michael, is not a resident of this county.

Patrick Cahill received his education in the common schools and he has always followed a farming and, being a hard worker and good manager, he has succeeded in building up a valuable and very desirable farming property and he has a good, comfortable home and such outbuildings as are necessary to carry on general farming and stock raising. He has been a man of energy and has been rewarded by a large measure of success. He is highly respected by all who know him, for his life be that of an upright citizen.

Politically, Mr. Cahill is a Democrat, and he is a very faithful member of the Catholic church, as was also his wife. Six children were born to them, all of whom are living, namely: Sarah, born February 24, 1860, is the wife of Henry Laentjes, of Clinton county; Mary, born August 25, 1863, is the wife of M. Hanrahan, of this county; Mariah, born December 12, 1866, is the wife of Thomas Hanrahan and lives in Clinton county; Thomas Cahill lives in South Dakota; Patrick Cahill and Elizabeth Cahill have remained with their father on the home farm.

Notes:<http://www.geni.com/surnames/cahill>

Generic History of our Name The Cahill name is one of the oldest in Europe. The Irish had surnames very early, and O'Cahill was one of the first. The earliest recorded person of our name was a monk, Flan O'Cahill, who died in 938 A.D. It is extremely unlikely that anyone can trace a member of his or her family back to Flan's family. The O'Cahills have links back to Irish pagan leaders in the 200s and 400s A.D. By 1000 A.D. the O'Cahills controlled much of south Galway, east Clare, and western and northern Tipperary. This predominance was ended in the 1200s by the O'Shaughnessys and the O'Donoghues, perhaps both in alliance with the Norman-English who had recently arrived in Ireland. Those 13th century defeats may have led to the loss in most lines of their "O," which indicates both descent and predominance. However it happened, by 1659 the name "O'Cahill" had been almost entirely replaced by "Cahill" as a common surname in a listing of workers on the large farms following the English Cromwellian land confiscations. Today Cahill is the most common surname in Munster, the old southwestern province, which includes the counties of Clare, Limerick, Kerry, Cork, Waterford, and Tipperary. The Irish there pronounce it with the accent on the first syllable with a short "a" and in the last syllable an almost-swallowed "h". This can be described as pronounced "CA" (accented) as in cattle, and "hill" as hull

Arrived in America about 1849

The family's Lived in: Philadelphia, Pa
Villanova, Ia
Center Grove, Ia
Grand Mound, Ia

The following notes are received on 6/16/2000 from Berniece Cahill Behrens of Reno, Nv. She is the daughter of Joesph Ligouri "Dode" Cahill, son of Thomas James Cahill, son of Patrick Cahill Sr., son of Micheal Cahill Sr.

The Cahill family history in this country begins in 1849 when Michael Cahill, born in Ireland in 1811, and his children, Patrick, Margaret, and Bridget, joined the exodus from Ireland during the Irish "potato famine". Bridget O'Neil, the first wife of Michael, died in Ireland prior to their move to the United States.

The second wife of Michael Sr. was Catherine (maiden name unknown). Catherine was born in 1823 in Ireland. Two children of this marriage. Michael and Catherine were married in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Sometime between 1860 & 1863, they moved to Clinton County, Iowa. It appears Micheal and son Patrick Sr. moved to Iowa at the same time. Micheal lived in Washington Township.

In an article titled "History of Clinton County, Iowa", Patrick declares he emigrated to American in 1849 with his father, brothers, and sisters, his mother having died in her native country.

Information Berniece has was from her Father "Dode" and various public records going back to 1988.

According to 1870 census on page 2, line 13 listing: Michael Cahill (59), Bridget Cahill (25) born in Ireland, Michael Cahill (17) born in Pennsylvania

Theresa is found in the 1910 census listed living with her daughter Anna in Fort Smith Arkansas. Census states she had 8 children and 5 are living. Her name is spelled Tereisa (suspect spelling error of census person). I have found evidence of two more children as listed, if there is more, they are unknown at this time. However, the obituary of son Thomas states Thomas is one of 13 children. That means there could be 5 more. My opinion, that could be possible as a record of marriage is found about 1851 in Illinois.

On the death certificate of daughter Anna, Anna's mother's name is listed a Mary Teresa. This could be true but no other evidence is found at this time.

Ulster is the northerly province of the island of Ireland. Encompassing the counties of Donegal, Cavan, Monaghan, Fermanagh, Tyrone, Derry, Antrim, Down and Armagh, Ulster was originally known by the Celtic name of Ulaid (Ulster in English). The earliest written sources about the history of Ulster date back to the 7th century.

County Armagh, historically, was the ecclesiastical centre of Ireland for some 1,500 years. Derived from the Irish 'Ard Mhacha' referring to the legendary Queen Mhacha, who is said to have built Fort Navan (Emain Macha). Evidence of sacred sites and burial grounds are abundant in the region. Once the ancient seat of Kings, Navan, to the west of Armagh town, was the earliest capital of Ulster. It is a site of unparalleled importance, which reflects over 7,500 years of evolution. The Irish King, Brian Boru, is buried in Armagh cathedral.

Most census records indicate birth location as "The Republic of Ireland (Irish Free State)". Irish Free State is the Sovereign county of Ireland not under British rule. Northern Ireland is under British rule.

Theresa married John Hanrahan on Saturday, December 20, 1851, in DuPage County, Illinois.^[182, 183] They had eight children: John, William, James, Anna, Thomas, George, Michael and Christopher.

HANNAH QUIGLEY BACKGROUND:

Not much is known about Hannah, but her father was a well respected farmer and businessman in Clinton, County. The following is found on the Internet and is quoted per: PORTRAIT AND BIOGRAPHICAL ALBUM OF CLINTON COUNTY, IOWA - Chicago: Chapman Brothers 1886

"John Quigley, was born in county Tipperary, Ireland, in 1802 where he married Bridget Riordan. About 1832, he left Ireland with his wife and four children and came to America, locating in New York City, where he was employed in the grocery trade for a few years. He then removed to Buffalo, N.Y., thence to Ottawa, where he engaged in the grocery trade and also conducted a hotel till fall. In 1849 he went to Cattaraugus County, N. Y. The New York & Erie Railroad was in process of construction at the time and he undertook contracts to build various portions of the same.

He completed his labors in New York in the fall of 1853, and in December started West, coming as far as Chicago, where he left his family until he could secure a location. Coming to Clinton County he selected a claim and took up land which now lies in Washington Township. He then walked to Iowa City and entered the land, 240 acres, at the Government office. His family came West soon afterward, coming by railroad to Freeport, which was at the time the Western terminus. He built a house on his land and lived there one year, then bought a claim on section 30, Waterford Township. There was a log house on the place and twenty acres broken. The family moved into the log house and the father commenced to improve his land. At this he continued up to the time of his death, March 11, 1882. He had in the meantime brought the land to a good state of cultivation and erected some frame house upon it

Michael Quigley, the youngest son, inherited the farm of his father that comprises 170 acres. Also located on the farm is the village of Quigley on the northwestern Railroad, founded by the family, and the post-office which bears the same name."
